

Austin Kilduff

(330) 592-1652 | austin@akilduff.com | github.com/austinkilduff

Education

Northeastern University | B.S. in Computer Science | September 2014 - June 2018

Technical Skills

Languages | Python, JavaScript, bash, SQL, Visual C#, Java, C, PHP

Tools | GNU/Linux, Git, Jira, vim, DigitalOcean, Make, GCC

Professional Experience

CCO | Campus Minister | June 2019 - Present

- Minister to college students through outreach, evangelism, discipleship, and Bible study
- Establish and maintain donor base to raise salary and ministry funds
- Develop personally and professionally through sustained mentorship and training events

Road Scholar | Web Developer | August 2018 - May 2019

- Programmed features and bug-fixes for public-facing website
- Managed projects, supervised external contractors, and assisted in website operations
- Learned healthy and productive management styles and interpersonal skills

Carbonite | Software Engineering Co-op | January 2017 - June 2017

- Programmed features, bug-fixes, and automated test cases for public-facing web portal
- Led and participated in regular review meetings to ensure quality of deliverables
- Learned effective organization, preparation, and attention to detail around involved technical tasks

Cantella & Co., Inc. | Web Development Co-op | January 2016 - November 2016

- Programmed internal-use web applications and redesigned public-facing website
- Collaborated across departments and led weekly progress meetings to deliver effective solutions
- Learned communication of complex technical information to a non-technical audience

Other Experience

youtube | Personal Project | March 2021 - Present

- Terminal-based YouTube client with vim-like keybindings written in Python with curses interface

akilduff.com | Personal Project | June 2019 - Present

- Ministry blog hosted on DigitalOcean built using Flask, Bootstrap, and Apache
- Currently rebuilding using Django and Nginx

Lifeboat Food Pantry | Community Service | March 2018 - April 2021

- Prepared and served food to 200+ families per week
- Planned routes and drove van for weekly food delivery service